

Think safety isn't important?

Employee Bob Smith hurt his back at work yesterday.

Mary had to work overtime to cover for him and missed an important appointment.

His supervisor spent all morning reworking the schedule instead of completing reports so now he's behind in his work.

Ellen was scheduled for two shifts and couldn't go to see her mother who has been very sick.

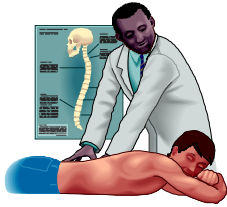

Sally isn't going to the father-daughter banquet at school because her dad isn't able to go now.
